Christmas Eve Candlelight Service

DID YOU KNOW....

Our Lord had three encounters with bitter myrrh. In Matthew 2:11 the Wise Men bought it to honor His birth. On the cross, the soldiers offered Jesus wine mingled with myrrh (Mark 15:23). And at Christ's tomb, Nicodemus brought a hundred pounds of myrrh to wrap into His burial clothes (John 19:39).

The gift of myrrh brought to baby Jesus points to our Lord's suffering on the cross and to His death. For Him, it was a symbol of tragedy; for us, it is a reason for thanksgiving. Oh, how we should constantly remember to thank Christ for all He bore for us.
