WORSHIP THE TRIUNE GOD

The worship of the Triune God under the New Covenant is characterized by simplicity. In marked contrast to the complex and multi-layered worship of the Old Covenant – with its richly-robed legacy priesthood, its elaborately beautiful tabernacle and then temple, the sights and smells of its sacrificial system, and its yearly feasts, fasts, festivals, and sabbaths – New Covenant worship is centered around the primary means of grace which Christ set within His Church: prayer and praise, along with the reading and preaching of the Word. Its simplicity, however, does not make this worship easy; our obligations as kings and priests to our God (Exodus 19:6) require us to arrive prepared each Lord's Day if we are to properly present ourselves "as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God; this is your spiritual worship" (Romans 12:1, HCSB). In the quiet of the moments preceding the start of this morning's service, seek that final preparation that will allow you to profit more fully from that worship of our God which is offered "in spirit and truth" (John 4:24).

The Church of Christ

Pastor: Thus says the High and Lofty One who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: "I dwell in the high and holy place, and also with the one who is of a contrite and humble spirit."

People: O Lord, high above all, we confess that our hearts are low – we have been proud in our comforts and faithless in our sorrows.

Pastor: You have seen our ways, O Lord – the wanderings of our thoughts, the coldness of our prayers, the impatience of our hearts.

People: Yet You say, “I have seen his ways, and I will heal him.”
Therefore, we come, not hiding, but hoping in Your promise of mercy.

Pastor: O Christ, who dwells with the contrite, bend low to receive us again. Restore the crushed in spirit; revive the heart that mourns its sin.

People: Heal us, O Lord, for only Your compassion can make us whole. You are high, yet near; holy, yet merciful; wounded once, yet now our healing.

Pastor: Lift up the humble and breathe new life into the fainting soul.
People: Create in us a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within us. Dwell in us, that we may dwell in You, through Jesus Christ – our tender-hearted Redeemer.

All: Amen!
